The Free Soilers and 'Democrats' (Nationals have united on candidates for the State Senate in the Counties of Middlesex, Essex, Worcester, Hampden, Berkshire. Norfolk, Plymouth and Bristol, and these parties have made separate nominations in but three Counties, Suffolk, Hampshire and Barnstable. They made District, State and Congressional nominations, but united very generally for the election of Representatives to the Legislature. A United States Senator is to be chosen by the new Legislature, and the Opposition have made a desperate struggle to secure the State Senate, and thus elect a Loco Governor in case no choice is made by the people.

Later.

Asses Office, Albany, Monday, Nov. 11.

It is useless to speculate upon the rumors affoat.
Upon our revised returns we estimate that about 100 will balance either candidate. The Journal claims, this evening, 804 for Hunt, putting Jefferson at 600, Oswego 923, Dutchess balanced, Kings 675. We put Jefferson 800, Oswego 961, Dutch ess 120, all for Seymour, and Kings 532. There are some minor differences between us. Otsego elects 2 Loco-Focos and Collin, Free Soil, to the Assembly. Schoharie Patriot, Whig, elects Lawyer, Loco-Foco, to Assembly. In Otsego District, Chase, Whig, is probably elected to Congress—the latest report says Clase has about 100 in Otsego and Snow only 52 in Schoharie.

Maryland Reform Convention.

ANNAPOLIS, Monday, Nov. II.

The Maryland Reform Convention spent their seventh day in fruitless ballotings, and are further off than ever from an election of President. Chapman obtained 44 votes, and the balance of the Convention scattered among half a dozen candidates. Just before adjournment a personal difficulty arose between Messrs. McLane and Sollers, which may probably lead to a duel.

THE GREAT FAIR, which has been some time in preparation by the ladies of the First Uni. versalist Society in this village, takes place to morrow afternoon and evening, at the Equestrian Institute South Fourth near Fourth-st. From the extensive arrangements made, and the known zeal and activity of the ladies superintending it, it will no doubt be a very interesting affair. The splendid rooms to be occupied, brilliantly lighted with gas, as they are expected to be, will alone present a most novel and interesting sight. The occasion will be a fine one for seeing the In-stitute Rooms, which, for extent, &c. exceed any-

TRIAL TRUE OF THE BALTIC .- On Friday morn ing last the new Steamship Baltic, Capt. Com-E. of the Collins Line, started on her trial trip. She left Corlear's wharf at half-past 10 and immediately proceeded to sea, in the teeth of a heavy gale and high sea. During Friday night she was placed in every position which could test her performance, and in all she worked with the greatest ease and steadiness. At 5 o'clock on Saturday she had reached a distance of 150 miles from Sandy Hook, when she was put about. After making the Highlands, at 4 P. M., she stood off again, and finally returned to the city on Sunday morning. In running up the bay, she made the distance be tween Fort Diamond and Castle William (s miles) in 24 minutes, making 16 revolutions, and with 13 inches of steam. This is at the rate of 20 miles an hour, and surpasses the performance of any other sea steamer

The Baltic has two magnificent side lever engines, designed by Charles Copeland, Esq., manufactured at the Allaire Works, and put up by Mr. Robt. Robinson, her chief engineer. The cylinders are 96 inches in diameter, and have ten eet stroke. The steadiness and regularity with which the engines performed their duty excited the admiration of all on board. Under favorable circumstances, we may expect the Baltic to make a shorter passage between the two continents than has yet been accomplished.

The following is the list of officers attached to the Ballie: Commander, Jos. J. Comstock; 1st officer, J. M. Duncan; 2d officer, E. C. Stout; 3d officer, M. Haxtun: 4th officer, Theo. Lee: Purser Jos. C. Canning; Surgeon, W. H. C. Crary; Chie Engineer, R. Robinson; Steward, Isaac Hinman-

JENNY LIND'S TWENTY SIXTH CONCERT-The Twenty Sixth Concert of JENNY LIND was given last night in Tripler Hall, to a large and delighted audience, as usual. We have already reviewed the programme at length in our notice of Saturday's Concert, in yesterday's Tribune. It is needless to repeat our impressions, or to say more than that we never have seen occasion to change our expressed opinion of these Concerts-To-morrow there will be a daylight-concert, at which half of the performance will consist of Sacred Music. The programme, which is very atrractive, will be found in another column Next week, we learn from good authority, is the last week of Mdlle. Lind's Concerts, and those who intend hearing her sing should not postpone the matter beyond this week.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY LECTURES .- The great success which has attended the popular courses of this Institution has induced the Managers to change the place of the future lectures from Clin. ton Hall to the Broadway Tabernacle. We shall miss the cosy, domestic and enthusiastic character of the mountains of rubbish piled up in the street of the reunions in Clinton Hall, at which the audience have so often been magnetized into a sense of intellectual unity by the wit and eloquence of a favorite lecturer: but we are glad that a much larger number than could be accommodated in that hall will now have an opportunity to enjoy the admirable entertainments which the Mercantile Library never fails to bring before the public. The lecture this evening, on "Jesuitism," by the eminent Catholic divine, Rev. Dr. RYDER of Georgetown, presents an exceedingly attractive subject, which, we have no doubt, will be handled' in a popular manner, and we presume with fairness and candor. The theme affords an excellent occasion for discussing the views maintained concerning the Jesuits by Carlyle, Isaac Taylor, and other able writers, who have done much toward giving a tone to public opinion on the subject. Dr. Ryder is well known as a thoroughly accomplished scholar, and an orator of great ability and earnestness. We anticipate a large audience, and can venture to predict that none will be disappointed.

PROPELLER LINE BETWEEN NEW-YORK AND SAVANNAH .- We learn that a prospect is on foot in Savannah to organize a Company to build a Propeller of some 1,100 tuns, with sufficient capacity for from 1,500 to 2,000 bales freight, and cabin accommodations for 100 passengers, and a good proportion of steerage. The cost of this vessel will be about $100,000, which will be taken in shares of $100. Messrs. Demill & Co., of this city, Rowland & Washburn, of Savannah, and Capt. Robert T. Brown, late of the barque Isaac Mead, are the projectors of this enterprise.

A LITERARY HOUSE .- Among the novelties in our City is the establishment of a hotel which is oming the resort of the literary celebrities who visit us. It is the Broadway Hotel, fronting the Park, and kept by DANIEL BINEY, Esq. on the European plan, where you can have a comfortable room, without board, or may have for breakfast and tea such articles as you desire; and where, if you expect to dine out often with your friends. you are not at the same time paying for dinners which you do not eat - while the charge for the room and attendance for a week is but little more than is demanded at our first hotels for a single day. Among the distinguished persons who have recently put up at the Broadway Hotel, we observe the names of Fitz-Greene Halleck, Fenimore Cooper, Professors Lieber and John Frost, Gen. G. P. Morris, Hugh A. Garland, Duff Green, Isaac Hill, Gov. Brown of Tenn. A. Huntington of Low ell, Hon, G. P. Squier, E. P. Whipple of Boston' Charles Sumner of do. Prof J. W. Andrews of Ohio, Judge McLean of do. and others.

SIXTH AVENUE RAILROAD .- We went into the chamber of the Board of Aldermen last night, expecting to find the worthy Fathers hard at work upon our railroad, but we had counted too fast upon Aldermanic speed - nearly the whole session had been occupied in a discussion upon a resolu tion to appoint a commission to revise the street grades in the upper part of the City. When the resolution was passed, off went the Aldermen to tea-at their own expense. But of that Rail road : A model of the proposed rail has been exhibited, and seems to meet and overcome the objection of wheel-catching; and a very handsome and durable style of building is proposed. The public are sufficiently acquainted with the details of the plan, so we need not repeat them. One of the best features proposed is the running of cars all night. Weary Editors and Printers will be glad of such accommodation; as will also many other persons whose business or inclination keep them late from home. If the Railroad project should fail, we hope this all night running will be taken into consideration by the stage proprietors. It a few cars or stages were to run, say until o'clock only, it would prove very acceptable to the public, and would be very likely to pay. But the railroad is the thing now on the tapis, and we trust that the November session of the Board will not be closed without a decision in the matter. The incubation has lasted insufferably long! Messrs. Aldermen; do let us have the chicken be it dock or turkey, show it up speedily. DRIVING CATTLE THROUGH THE STREETS .-

The Board of Assistant Aldermen last evening adopted an ordinance prohibiting the driving of cattle or animals through the streets south of Thirty ninth at between 6 A M and 10 P.M in Summer, and 8 and 10 in Winter, under penalty of $5 for each animal-to take effect on the 1st of In pary cest

THE MURDER CASES .- In the Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Judge Edwards and Ald. Miller and Shaw, the trial of Delany, charged with the murder of a woman in Center st. was postponed to Monday next, owing to the illness of a witness on each side.

In the case of the Sandwich Island man, indicted for murder, in having struck persons with the post of a bedstead while ascending the stairs to arrest him, one; of whom died, Mr. J. D. Sherwood, who was assigned by the Court for his defense, stated that he has been unable to communicate with the prisoner so as to succeed in obtaining anything intelligible from him, he not speaking the English language. He was, no doubt, at the time of the act, laboring under what is termed frantic insanity, which is hereditary. He does not appear to know the nature of the charge against him nor its penalty. I have said Mr. S., recently learned the names of some gentlemen who understand the language he speaks. They are returned Missionaries from the Sandwich Islands, and at my request they and myself will have an interview with the prisoner in his cel to-morrow, when something, probably, will be elicited as to his state of mind. I do not think he is fit to be placed on trial. This case was also put off till Monday.

On the application to proceed to trial forthwith or enter a nolle prosequi in the case of young Drury, the Court will give a decision this day.

STEALING OF TRIBUNES .- For some time past there have been complaints from various persons in the upper part of the City, of the failure of their copies of The Tribune. Our carrier in the Fourteenth Ward, finding that with all his care the papers still were missed, set officer Michael Smith to watch yesterday morning, whose vigilance was was rewarded by the detection of a thief in the act of marching off with papers left at the doors of stores in the Bowery. The scamp was arrested and delivered over to justice. Other thieves will please take warning in time, for we will not in. sure them long without discovery and punishment.

The Commercial Advertiser complains of the "intolerable nuisance of drivers walking their horses in Broadway below Veseyst." The drivers are in as much of a hurry as you are, friend; but they can't get along faster, on account by builders. We can't see the justice of holding drivers responsible for the jam in Broadway, when the whole street has been one chaos of brick, stone and lumber for months. Suppose you growl a little at the owners of these barricades; what right has one man to monopolize for weeks the room which a hundred thousand are entitled to and anxious to use ! We trust that some of these "big fish" may be stirred up before all the minnows are speared. First clear Broadway of rub bish, and then we'll censure the man who refuses to "drive on." And, by the way, as long as certain vehicles hire the street under a law of the Corporation, why should they be crowded out or obstructed by an unlicensed host of drivers who take especial pains to get into Broadway for the very purpose of annoying the men who pay their way, and so get them into difficulty for the purpose of making capital for expectant rivals in the carrying trade. There is too often a method in this confusion, and sometimes something more than public good in the cry of "Relief."

PARADES .- We noticed several companies on parade yesterday, for target excursions, &c. The Wilson Guards, composed mainly of members of Engine Co. No. 15, went to Mount Morris, where they did some sharp shooting. They made a fine appearance; dress, black pants with silver stripe and black frock coats.

LAING'S ABATTOIRS .- Mr. E. H. Luing is constructing, and has finished in part, a row of fortythree buildings, of which forty-one are to be ap propriated to the business of slaughtering cattle with its accessories. They run from the North River on the south side of Thirty-ninth-st. to the Eleventh-av (Hudson River Railroad,) are two stories high, the corners (being designed for gro. ceries) are three-story; a sewer, in which the tide chlis and flows, runs in the rear of all. The row is eight hundred feet long; and a dock of three hundred feet long and forty feet wide will be finished this Fall. Here the cattle are to be landed from river and ferry boats.-- If the Slaughtering business is to remain in our City, we hope it will be concentrated here.

Dr. Banning lectures to day before the ladies, at 3 o'clock, P.M. and before ladies and gentlemen to night at 7 o'clock, on General Debility.

POPULAR EDUCATION.-We call attention to Mr. E. H. Wilcox's Educational Appeal, which has appeared in The Tribune. The subject is one of universal interest, and no efforts are wasted which are made with a view to bring it home to the public mind.

GENIO C. SCOTT'S "MIRROR OF FASHION" for November gives the latest intelligence on authentic costume, and should be consulted not only by professional artists, but by all gentlemen who are about to replenish their wardrobes. Sold at No. 146 Broadway.

The Third Annual Ball of the Murdoch Dramatic Association will be given to-morrow night at the Apollo Rooms. TEMPERANCE BOOKS .- We notice that the Organ Pictoral Temperance Almanac for 1851 has just been published by Brognard & Co. 150 Fulton-st. Beside the usual Almanae matter, it contains a vast amount of valuable temperance statistics, argument, anecdotes, &c. &c. which should be read and treasured by all who dally with the destroyer. The same publishers have also just issued a neat little book entitled "The New-York Organ Temperance Tables," wherein the claims and advantages of Temperance are set forth in the attractive language of fable, and in a style sufficiently simple for the comprehension of children. The Organ establishment has done much good work for the great cause of total abstinence, and we hope these publications and the hundreds heretofore issued will be scattered far and wide among the people, since their influence will be for public and individual benefit.

A small building of trifling value was destroyed by fire on Saturday night. Its location was near the Penny Bridge, Hamilton avenue.

MORE RELIES .- Among the many ways for elieving the present Fulton Ferry of its weight of travel, is an increase of boats. Four boats could be run as easily as three on the Fulton Ferry, two of them using the lower slips on either side, and the other two the upper slips. A boat could start from each of the lower slips-the other two starting out as soon as practicable after the jirst two had crossed and entered their respective slips on opposite sides. By this means a boat would always be in, and people would not risk their lives in ranning after boats. Another plan is to run two of the boats exclusively for foot pas-sengers, and to run them twice or three times while the carriage boats are loading and unload-Foot passengers require but a minute to go ore or aboard, while much delay is caused by the disastrous results of their sudden or prema-ture decease, is, we think, the great merit of the National Loan Fund System: but this Society offers other advantages, which it would be well for those who contemplate insuring their lives to acquaint themselves with, by calling at the office of the General Agency, 71 Wall-st, where they will obtain every information to guide them, in what, in nine cases out of ten, at least, we feel perfectly warranted in calling their wise and praiseworthy intention. We are well aware that life assurance is frequently and beneficially resorted to as a means of facilitating pecuniary arrangements of every description; but, in the vast majority of cases, we believe, it is adopted by the right hearted and affectionate father, to ward poverty and distress from the lot of those who are denrer to him than life, in the event of their being denrived of his protection and care. Life Assurance. We have so frequently urged upon our readers the wisdom—in many cases the duty—of making insuring their lives, that we feel it to be unneces sary to reiterate those arguments, which, the pro-Firetly: That the means conscerated by the po-litical Constitution of the States not being suf-ficient, under the present circumstances, to pre-serve order, the Congress shall dictate such measrbial uncertainty of human life and the daily instances of the benefits arising from life assur ance, have placed in the list of incontrovertible truisms. Our present object is to direct the attention of those who, from any of the various motives that may render it advantageous to them, conures as are conducive to the safety of the country. Secondly: The Council of Ministers shall from this date remain charged with the supreme command of the Republic, until the recovery of the constitutional President, and the Government is invested with all the powers conferred upon him by the people. template effecting insurance on their lives, to the advertisement of the "National Loan Fund Life Assurance Society," of London, in our present issue. By perusing it, they will readily discover the advantages which this Society offers to those by the people.

Thirdiy: Are declared beyond the pale of the law the notorious assassins Augustin Morales, Juan Sotomayor, and the other authors of this the advantages which this Society offers to those insuring with it, over and above those derivable from policies obtained from other companies. The principal of these advantages we shall shortly explain. It is that the system adopted by the National Loan Fund Society combines,—and with perfect security as well to the insurer as to the insured,—the benefits derivable from the system of Savings Banks and that of Life Assurance. A palicy effected with it performs a double office: erime.
Fourthly: The Congress passed a vote of thanks to the illustrious and heroic Capital Sucre, and to the Governor, for their noble deportment in the event of yesterday, and authorizes the Governor. ent to order the appropriate rewards and gratifi A policy effected with it performs a double A policy effected with it performs a double office; it may either be used as a means of promoting the welfare of the insured himself, or of providing for that of his family at his death. This result is attained by the Society binding itself, at all times, to lend the assured, upon interest, one half of whatever amount of regular annual premium he may have paid upon his policy, and this without personal liability, or even deposit of the policy, but by simple indorsement of the amount borrowed thereon. For example—we will suppose a man of 45 years of age insured his life for $10,000—his annual payment for which, according to the Society's By later accounts we learn that it was ascertained that Col. We are astonished at the course pursued by Great Britain in Nicaragua. With every arrival from the southward we receive new evidences that, so far from relinquishing any of her pretensions, or moderating any of her measures, she is carrying matters with a higher hand than ever before. It was very generally supposed that with the conclusion of the recent Convention with England, we should hear no more of her preposterous protectorate on the Mosquito Shore, nor of her august protegé, the unbreeched Majesty of the Musquitos. It was supposed that in conformity with the spirit, if not the terms of that treaty, she would avail herself of the opportunity then offered, gracefully, and without any sacrifice of her pride, to recede from her most undignified and unwarrantable position. But we are now compelled to believe that she has had, and now has no intention of fulfilling her implied if not direct obligations in the matter. Such being the case, the whole subject must be reopened, and the American people once deceived, should take care to leave no room for cheating in a second instance.

now overawed by two British vossels of war; and, as we perceive from late Jamaica papers, a considerable augmentation has been made from that island of what is called the "Police force." It further appears that every person landing there is at once deprived of his arms, if he has any, which are taken possession of by the British Consul, and duly returned when the owner leaves the place. A per capita passage, or passport tax of five dollars, is also exacted of every passenger who may go through the port. And all this is dor,e, not by the pretended Mosquito authority, for no Mosquito Indian ever lived at San Juan, but by British officers, holding cammissions from the British Government. The flag which is kept flying at what is, called the Custom-House is the Engli sh flag, and the sole force or authority 'rs English! Facts like these need no cor oment. They are of that nature which c'alls for the prompt and efficient interposition of our Government.

The effer st of these occurrences in Nicaragua ha s been very bad. Relying upon the good faith of the United States, the Gove mment of that State has made every co accession and extended to us every facility which we have asked. And it expected in return that in the negotiations set on foot between us and England, the rights and in. terests of Nicaragua would be considered and provided for. And relying upon the interpretation here put upon the Bulwer and Clayton treaty, (without, however, having themselves the fullest confidence in its terms,) the Nicaragua Government expected some relaxation of the oppressions they have suffered from English usurpation. But instead of this, they are now treated
